conditions of entry

- Any Australian of any age can enter up to five photos by post or email.
- Photos of any man having positive time with any child or young person in his care. This includes granddads, uncles, step dads, foster dads, sports coaches, friends, older brothers, or any male providing significant positive care over a significant period of time in the life of the younger person in the photo.
- Posed, action or spontaneous photos in colour or black & white including digital may be entered.
- Photos must be taken since Fathers Day 2010, except for history category (before Sept 2010).
- Photographers must have the agreement of those in the photo (or their parents / guardians, if under the age of 18) to enter the photo and include any attached comments.
- Photos are judged on the expression of the positive time between the person and their father or significant male carer in the photo. The photographic or technical quality is only a secondary consideration for judging. The judge s decision is final and no correspondence shall be entered into. The organizers reserve the right to choose which photos to enter and display.
- Photos that are posted or delivered (and not e-mailed) should be postcard size (150 x 100mm) to A4 size (210 x 297mm) including borders. Photographer s name and contact phone number should be written on the back of the photo. Photos are best with a cardboard backing and a border of up to 30mm for display purposes. No frames. Prints received without borders may be put onto black cardboard for exhibitions.
- E-mailed photos can be any size, (E-mail to: tdp@ycnc.com.au) and may be printed for judging and exhibition. We will contact you if we would like a higher resolution copy.

- Photographers can win only one judge s prize. All photos will be considered for the People s Choice prize.
- All entrants and prize winners agree to have their name/s, photo/s and story/stories (if given) considered for use in exhibitions, promotions, People s Choice Exhibitions (on-line or traveling) and other printed materials. Photos may be scanned for these purposes. The photographers retain copyright to their photos. Address and phone numbers will not be given to anyone without the entrant s approval. Photos of National winners may be copied for the touring People s Choice Exhibitions.
- Entry is FREE for those who cannot afford to make a supporters contribution to defray the enormous cost of organizing and touring of this national competition and exhibition. Please mark all donations to Youth Connections North Coast at the address below. Donations over $2 are tax deductible. See website thanksdadphotos.org.au for details of our Cost Sharing and Copyright Agreements.
- Photos will not be returned.
- National winners will be announced on Father s Day 2011 and presented at appropriate times on or after this date. Check website for local details.
- Entry form, photo/s and your supporter s contribution must be received by 5pm 25th August, 2011.
